City seeks applicants for openings on Boards and Commissions

[Duluth, MN] Do your 2021 resolutions include getting more involved in the community? The City of Duluth has openings on 13 of its boards and commissions and is looking for new representation to make decisions and shape our community.

“Joining a board or commission is a great way to lend your voice to a topic that you care about,” said Administrative Services director Chelsea Helmer. “Members of the City’s boards and commissions serve an important role in gathering information and making recommendations to our staff and elected officials. It is a great way for the public to directly participate in their government.”
